Harry E. Lovejoy, president of the Western Maine Poultry Association, predicts a large exhibition in Norway Opera House January 1, 2, 3. More than usual interest is being shown according to a long list of entries, many birds out of the county have been listed to appear. The egg laying contest, a new feature with this show, has created great interest as many inquiries and promises to enter would indicate. The location for the show has an attractive power as Mr. Lovejoy states, "Poultry men say there isn't a better show room in the state because of every convenience."

At the time of the accident, he was believed only the cords in the ankle were strained, but the X-ray showed a fractured hip, which will necessitate an operation a little later. He is able to be about with the aid of crutches.

The meeting of the D. A. R. for January will be held Wednesday, the 2nd, with Myra S. Richards at South Paris. The program will include the roll call to be answered by current events and a reading of "Forefathers' Day" by Jennie Bates. The members at this meeting will also read in rhyme the way they earned their dollar.

Abundant snow over a wide territory has created a large demand for snow shoes, skis and toboggans. W. F. Tubbs factory is running to capacity with seventeen men on the jump filling rush orders. Ten years ago this was a one man establishment getting out a limited number of hand made snow shoes in a back shed on the farm. The present up to the minute factory in the village, fully equipped to accommodate the wholesale trade, is the result of that rural experiment. Five styles were made in the early days, now there are twelve. Skis have been made for some time and the demand can hardly be met.

The young ladies' choir of the South Paris Universalist church, with Mrs. Agnes L. Morton, organist, furnished the musical service at the Norway Universalist church Sunday afternoon. This Christmas program was nicely executed and has received many complimentary notices.

Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Easton went to Brighton Sunday afternoon and remained over Christmas with Dr. Easton's parents.

W. F. Tubbs was presented with a fine black leather arm chair as a Christmas gift from the regular employees in his snow shoe factory. Mr. Tubbs' gift to each of these men was a War Saving Certificate Stamp.

W. Frank Starr returned from Boston Wednesday evening with a list of writers who are willing to play the game here later. He attended the carnival at the Grand Opera House, but was not greatly impressed with the show. Truman has been matched with several good men, including Kilgore, and the mill will probably be run here in the near future.

A meeting of Oxford County, No. 14, R. and S. M. will be held Friday evening, January 4th, at P. M. R. I. Deputy Grand Master Thomas H. Dodge of Augusta will be present and make his official visit. There will also be work in the Super Excellent Master's degree.

The degree was conferred on eleven candidates and one member accepted through transfer at the special meeting of Mt. Hope Rehearsal Lodge Wednesday evening. The work was well done by the home lodge team. Refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. Leavitt, Kimball, Mrs. Georgia Swain, Mrs. Lilla Locke and Alice Curtis. NOTES FROM THE BOYS IN SERVICE

The following is a letter from Sergeant Lester L. Witham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah L. Witham of Norway, Me.

Nor. 30, 1917, Somewhere in France. Dearest Folks at home:

Just a few lines tonight to let you know that I am O. K. and enjoying myself as much as possible under circumstances.

I hope this finds everyone in good health and spirits. We are quite busy here in France working from morning until night, preparing for the big work ahead of us. Conditions are pretty hard here at times, but that cannot be wondered at taking in consideration the difficulties under which they have to work. I always try to keep smiling and content, for I know there are many other boys that are having it harder than us fellows.

At present I am attending a school of instruction about 50 miles from where Co. D is. Our captain, the 2nd Lieutenant and myself are here from our company. The course of instruction lasts five weeks. I spent Thanksgiving day here and we had a dandy dinner, beyond all expectations. Turkey with dressing, sweet potatoes, mince, brown gravy, cranberries, white bread, figs, apples, and lemonade. Hows that for a soldier?

How many miles from the good old U. S. A. I hope you all had a good dinner too. How I would love to be back home for one of "Mother's" good feeds. There isn't a day goes by but what I dream of the old home over, starting at the gate door, and all through the house, and linger at everything I used to like best.

Home each day and mother's dear face is before it all, making the picture the dearest place on earth. I haven't got a letter from home since I left U. S. S. Suppose we will get them all later.

My time is limited so will have to say goodbye for this time with fondest love to everyone, and remember me to all the friends at home. As ever your boy, Sergt. Lester L. Witham.

103rd U. S. Infantry, Co. D, American Expeditionary Forces, Camp New York Post Office.

These letters are from Archibald F. Swift to his mother, Mrs. Grace A. Swift of Norway. Private A. F. Swift, 128th Co., 7th Regt., San Juan Hill, Santiago de Cuba, Marine Barracks.

My dear mother: Oh I wish I could tell you about my trip here, but I can't, it was wonderful what I have seen. When I was called back to Quantico, Virginia from my furlough, out of 7000 marines there were only 450 left and we are about to start for somewhere right off, so if you don't hear from me again very soon don't worry for I will write just as soon as I can, so goodbye until then, love from Archie.

My dear mother: Well mother dear here I am in Santiago de Cuba. We did not know until we landed where we were to stop. I can't write very much as my hand sticks to the paper it is so hot. We pitched tents late Tuesday. We sleep with the tents rolled up and we have mosquito nets over us on frames when we turn in at night.

All Cubans, Spanish and negroes here, none of our kind of people at all. We expect to be here until after Christmas and perhaps longer. If we change, our mail will follow us. We worked all day yesterday (Thanksgiving day) unloading sacks of oats and baled hay. Its all jungle of fruit and coconuts wild so we get and hard to get, so I guess I won't make much. Handkerchiefs and towels are as scarce as wishes on a looking glass.

The city is three miles from camp and a funny place to live in. Windows, only bars to keep out snakes and thieves. Its hot as the hottest day in July here now and what must it be in the summer. I will write more about this later but I can't tell you about U. S. M. C. as its all censored. I am sending you a package of Christmas. Its the best I could do mother for you and Ruby. Please send me Sergeant Carroll's address as I want to write to him.

With the best of love for you and Ruby from your own boy,

My dear mother: Well it is about 100 in the shade and hot as the dickens. I can't seem to get used to it but of course I will in time. I wish I could be with you and Ruby Christmas day, but cheer up marm, pervert to Betty real often. I haven't heard a word from her or you or anyone since I left Norway. As we worked all Christmas day just for luck. It is very hard to write letters when you can't tell what you want to, but then I will come a time when I can tell you all about it and it will be great, for I have seen so much. Its pretty lonesome nights, all we see is moon, stars and the tops of palm trees for company. Will close now for this time, love from Archie.

My dear mother: I am writing again. We are kept very busy from morning until night at some time all the time. It is hard to think of snow now here, it is so very warm here. Why it is as hot as any day I ever knew and we pick fruit and flowers here now. Please send me the Advertiser, it would be nice to read about home. I have not heard a word from you all yet. I Ruby. I think of you both so much. I don't like our food very well, but I guess its the best they can do in this climate and it might be worse.

I hope you have a nice time Christmas and get what I sent. Now I will stop and hope to hear from you before long. Lots of love to you both, Archie.

Dr. Fred E. Drake went to Massachusetts early in the week to pass Christmas with Mrs. Drake, who is spending several months with relatives.

Francis H. Sweet, professor in biology at the Tufts Medical school and Edward Churchill, a student in the Howard Medical school are passing their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene N. Sweet. They will leave for their respective colleges, Saturday.

Invited to Partake of the Civilizing Influences of the Primary Schools

Norway, Me., Dec. 27, 1917. Editor Fred Waldo Sanborn:

In reply to your "Big Slam at Inadequacies" of teachers' report of schools, and to the public and to the School Director, we suggest that you visit the schools of Norway, and, as you watch eager, happy faces busily at work, then, if ever (I), will come a broadening outlook on life, and with this newly acquired vision, maybe you will find there, and elsewhere, inspiration, items of real interest to your subscribers, thus taking the place of omitted middle names and "Harken Back to the Past."

Norway Grange

The last meeting of the year was held Dec. 22. The meeting was called to order by past master, Clarence W. Buck at 2 p. m. Chas. Frost acted as overseer and F. P. Town as steward, Ralph Gordon as assistant steward. In the opening exercises the grange joined in singing "The Grange Song" and "The Grange Anthem" by worthy secretary, Louise Gammon. Several matters of business were brought up and disposed of.

The dinner committee for Jan. 1st begins with the letters A to I inclusive, says "bring plenty of beans." It was voted to give our worthy master, George W. Richardson a post card shower. He is at St. Barnabas Hospital, Portland. His illness is very much regretted and all the Grange workers hoped for.

The literary program was somewhat abbreviated, but was made very interesting nevertheless:

Reading: "The Grange" by Algie Crooker. Christmas Recollections, responded to by Zilpha P. Farnham, C. W. Buck, Louise Gammon, Algie Crooker, Viola Abbott, Addie Stevens, R. P. Town, E. K. Grover.

Resolutions of joint: Emma Swan implements. Discussion led by C. W. Buck. The Grange was briefly commented on by the Grange workers.

DAYS OF DIZZINESS

Come to Hundreds of Norway People

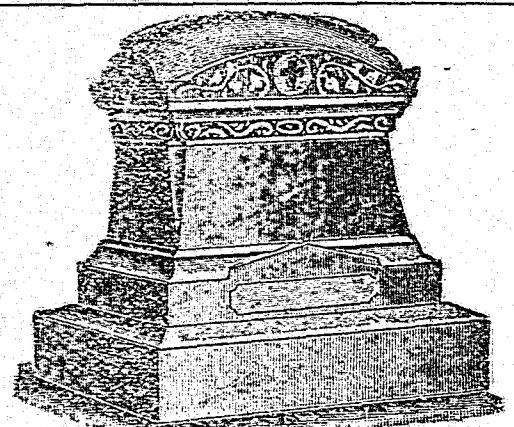

There are days of dizziness; Spells of headache, languor, backache; Sometimes rheumatic pains; Often urinary disorders.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney ills.

Endorsed in Norway by grateful friends and neighbors.

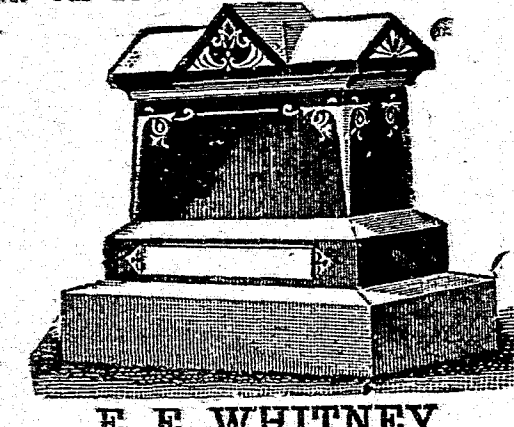

Mrs. Mary Gammon 14 Beal St. Norway says, "I have kept Doan's Kidney Pills on hand for years, in fact, ever since I first took them nearly ten years ago. The symptoms I noticed at that time indicated kidney complaint. There was a dull, heavy ache across the small of my back and often attacks of dizziness came over me. Doan's Kidney Pills which I got from Frank Kimball's Drug Store, proved fine in relieving me of those troubles. I take Doan's off and on now and couldn't wish for anything better to keep my kidneys in good condition."

Price 50¢, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Gammon had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Cataral Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Cataral Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be removed and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrh Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

SOUTH PARIS

Arthur E. Rock, who lived in town several years ago, fell from the Grand Trunk bridge between Auburn and Lewiston, Monday night, Dec. 17th, and was badly shaken up. He dropped about 30 feet to the ice, striking on a suit case which he carried under his life. He was rescued by the Lewiston police and hurried to the St. Marie's General Hospital for examination. George Hollis of South Paris, a brakeman on the G. T. Lewiston branch, was with him at the time of the accident. Rock has a sister, Ida, and a brother, William Rock, living here.

Early snow over a wide territory has created a large demand for skis, sleds and toboggans. The Paris Manufacture Co. have been making these goods to the market which is more brisk than for several years. An increased call for high priced goods this season, would show a general prosperity over the snow covered country.

The new motor of the Belgium hare enterprise which he started several weeks ago is progressing rapidly. He has 23 animals in prime condition and will soon be serving to his family meat far more delicious than chickens or quail. This is a common dish in the section of England where he came from, and he hopes to introduce the money-making business. It costs practically nothing to feed the hares, they propagate rapidly so when a good start is made the flesh-meat supply can never worry the housewife.

The new motor warnings have been set at Hicks crossing. They are large iron discs carrying this message, "B. E. speed limit 10 miles per hour." They are stationed 300 feet on either side.

The human body is worth more to its owner than is a cow or an automobile, and then one wonders why so many men are more careless in the upkeep of their bodies than in the upkeep of their chattels. A business man keeps books and knows what his assets and his liabilities are. An auto owner has an expert go over the parts of the car to keep it in condition and to detect leakage and breakage. A farmer has a veterinary expert report on his cows and his horses.

But comparatively few men spend thirty minutes a year in undergoing a physical examination to determine their physical assets and liabilities.

The results of the draft examinations indicate the need of an occasional counting in the realm of health. Statistics show, too, that the diseases of old age are creeping down into middle life and taking men off when they ought to be most effective. It is estimated that four hundred thousand persons die annually from diseases which in most cases could be prevented and in practically all cases could be postponed. In 1914, or ganic heart disease surpassed tuberculosis in death rate. Cancer kills no less than 80,000.

Disease takes away an even larger bright. The tragedy of it all is that with little more care, a little better realization of the danger, a little wider application of the principal of efficient management to the field of bodily control, much of this destruction of life could be avoided.

THRIFT THOUGHT

A large amount of good food in potatoes, including most of the valuable mineral elements, is wasted by ordinary methods of peeling. Baking "in the jackets" also means a loss (if the jacket is not eaten), since much of the meat of the potato sticks to the stiffened skin and is discarded. Here is a suggestion made by the United States Department of Agriculture for reducing the discarded portion of the potato to a minimum:

Drop washed potatoes in a vessel of rapidly boiling water and allow them to remain 10 minutes. Remove and strip the thin skin as when potatoes are peeled after thorough cooking by boiling. The potatoes will still be practically raw and may be handled like raw peeled potatoes in preparing any dish, as scalloped, French or German fried potatoes, potato chips, etc.

One excellent way to cook the skinned potatoes is to bake them. The entire potato, including the thin, golden-brown crust may be eaten.

This recipe for economical peeling of potatoes was furnished by a housewife and tested by the United States Department of Agriculture. The department will be glad to have other housewives write of thrift practices which they have found useful in their homes.

TRAINING THE WILL

The attention that is being given during the maimed from the present war, to the way of helping them become self-supporting or in part capable of providing for themselves, is one of the hopeful signs of the times. All of the countries that have been engaged in the war for any length of time have organized definite movements for the relief of just such cases. It is stated that results are amazing, and there is promise of many who would otherwise be thrown upon the mercies of the country and its people being placed in positions where they are reasonably independent.

One important emphasis in the help that is given in this work is the re-establishing of the will power of the maimed man. A painter loses his eyes, a pianist his hands, and these and other injuries tend to cause, and naturally, the injured man to lose his will power to do what he has not been accustomed to do. It is with the purpose of re-establishing will power and a disposition to help the maimed to do what they can do and to seek to become more or less expert in their work that the new emphasis is being placed so effectively in the schooling given. The training of the will after it is established anew becomes as important as the manual or other instruction.

COPPER ORE FROM MAINE

The American Smelting and Refining Co., who acquired the old Douglas mine at Blue Hill early in the year, has been establishing a shipping basis of about 3000 tons of ore monthly.

It is estimated the property contains about 60,000 tons of low copper values, but carries considerable sulphur making it desirable for smelting purposes. The Guggenheim has installed a small mill from which the product goes as concentrates to the Perth Amboy plant.

The first mining operations were carried on between 1877 and 1884, but failed, later attempts to reopen have been unsuccessful until this time.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas our years of friendly and fraternal associations with our dear sister, Abbie Waterhouse are over and she has in answer to her Father's call, gone home, therefore be it Resolved, that as we realize her happiness we can but feel the deep loss to Julian Rebekah Lodge and her presence in the world will long be missed.

Resolved, that as we placed upon her casket our floral tribute, as we draped our banner and set aside a place in our records to her memory and by these resolutions express to all our estimation of her character, we can but turn back with renewed energy to the duties she so many years faithfully carried, dedicating in our hearts the memory of her cheerful words and hearty fellowship grateful that we have known her and been her friends.

Resolved, that to the remaining family we extend our sympathy and send them a copy of these resolutions, so that a copy be spread upon our records and publication be made in the Norway Advertiser.

JENNIE E. HUBB, GRACE E. STANLEY, EDITH F. CHARLES, Committee on Resolutions.

OLD YEAR GOOD BYE

Old Year, I must bid you good bye. The time of our parting was a happy one. And a long look that you understand, Old Year, good bye.

Old friends are the best after all. Old joys that we love to recall. Whatever may come with the new All my thoughts will be faithful to you, Old Year, good bye.

The treasures you gave me to keep. The hopes that are buried in sleep. The sweet voices in laughter and song. All will live in my memory long, Old Year, good bye.

The skies that were cloudless and blue. The paths where the wild roses grew. And the graves in the valley below. All come to my mind as you go, Old Year, good bye.

This means a scarcity when retailers present stocks are exhausted, as it will be hard to get the desirable styles.

We have an unusually full stock of stable blankets in burlaps and ducks and in all the different styles of fasteners and surcingle. Prices on these goods are very low, considering their scarcity and the difficulty of getting them. Duck storm blankets in medium and large sizes.

A fine assortment of street blankets, of the best colors, in stripes, plaids and Indian weaves, ranging in price from $1.50 up to $6, $7 and $8 each. Many of these are in beautiful colors and well worth your examination.

Thirty-one Hundred Dollars Distributed. The Carroll Jellison Shoe Co. of Norway voluntarily distributed more than $3100 in cash bonuses Saturday noon before the factory closed for the Christmas vacation.

Lawrence M. Carroll, president and manager assembled the three hundred or more factory employees together in the cutting room and in a heart to heart talk thanked them for their loyalty during the past year. He impressed upon all the fact that the shoe manufacturers were up against hard problems and each workman could do his or her bit in cutting waste to a minimum. To make shoes for a highly competitive trade it is necessary for all to have the business at heart and work together. One cannot get along without the other and it is the mutual feeling that brings steady business.

At the conclusion of the speech Jesse P. Edwards on behalf of the help, presented Mr. Carroll a large Morris choir and an electric table lamp with fixtures. The president was taken wholly by surprise, but responded briefly, thanking all for their thoughtfulness and good wishes.

This is the first general bonus the company has distributed in the three years of their organization. Each workman who has been more than two weeks with the firm received $10 and the scholars working but a few hours a day secured amounts in proportion.

Norway Wrestler a Canadian Soldier. Johnny Aspinall, a former Norway boy, who previously tried hard to enlist in Company D, Second Maine Regiment, but was rejected by the examining doctors, was in town over the Christmas holidays.

Johnny has made good his intention of doing his bit for humanity and democracy by enlisting in the Canadian 1st Quebec Regiment at Montreal and now appears quite soldierly in the uniform of a full fledged corporal, but has been recommended as sergeant.

Captain Aspinall is Physical Instructor and holds the wrestling championship of the barracks containing 2000 men. He has developed wonderfully in strength and skill during his comparatively short training and fully able to take care of himself with any Fritz the Germans may bring on. He reports to Montreal this Thursday as the regiment is to go overseas very soon and enter the trenches early.

It is suggestive that in his company fully two-thirds are American citizens and every man anxious to get across into the mix-up.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver J. Foss went to Mr. Foss' home at Leeds, Saturday and remained for the Christmas gathering.

At a meeting of Mt. Hope Rebekah lodge, Friday evening, the annual election of officers was held as follows:

Harry Rust, W. R. C. No. 45, held their regular meeting, Thursday evening, Dec. 20. One candidate was received into membership. At the next meeting, Thursday evening, January 3, the annual installation of officers will occur with Mrs. Lilla Rice of George E. Knight Corps, North Waterford, as installing officer. Mrs. Annie C. Beck, Mrs. Ida Gannon and Mrs. Vira Kilgore are the supper committee. A social hour followed and Mrs. Adie Buswell served cornballs.

Major Harry S. Nevers, who is at Camp Green, Charlotte, N. C., has been discharged on account of physical disability to service overseas. Dr. Nevers was given a sick leave in the fall, which was spent largely in Maine, but returned to his duties greatly improved. The hospital unit is soon to be sent over there, so his discharge came at this time. He expects to be in Norway about New Years to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Nevers, before returning to his medical practice in Lawrence, Mass.

Have you a tenement to rent? If so let our readers know about it. For cost see intelligence column. Read that department each week. It is worth your while.

Lewis R. Buswell must be included in the long list of Norway's successful pork raisers. His pig dressed 235 pounds and will show a neat balance in favor of the owner. Very little grain was fed, but vegetables mixed with middlings and table waste forced on fat.

Ernest Deobeleau injured his hand Friday while working on a log at the Norway Turning Co. A bit entered his wrist making a ragged wound and severing an artery. He was treated at the Truett hospital.

At Mildred Wood of Norway Lake has been in Farmington visiting her sister, Helen Tucker, who left for Washington, D. C., Thursday last, to accept a government position.

Noble's Corner.

Daniel and Carroll Herrick are cutting pine for Oscar Cox.

Cort Hunt and Will McKay are cutting wood for Guy Curtis.

Pedley Russell lost his year old colt last week with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edwards spent a few days with their daughter, Mrs. Henry Russell, the first of the week.

Fred Hersey and family spent Sunday at Albert Farnum's.

EAST SUMMER.

Ethel Bonney came home to spend the Christmas holidays.

There were no public Christmas trees at this place, but many family trees.

Rev. David of Ocean Park preached at the Baptist church, Sunday.

A very enjoyable Christmas exercise was given at the Congregational church Sunday evening under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society. Esther Eastman was leader and E. R. H. Stetson, organist.

Mary Bonney's school had a tree at the schoolhouse, Monday afternoon. The children went home with sparkling eyes and each had a parcel which they were taking home to show mamma.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Barrows and little daughter spent Christmas day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Barrows.

EAST SWEDEN.

D. T. Adams has been cutting wood of late for Mrs. Richardson, also Ray Kneeland and John Flint helped one day.

Mrs. Will Durgin and little daughter Viola are home from a visit with relatives in Waterford.

Rev. Wilbur Souther, pastor of the Sweden M. E. church, held a meeting in the Haskell schoolhouse, Sunday evening, Dec. 16th, and spent a part of the following week in this place making calls.

Mrs. Lucy A. Haskell has gone to Fryburg Harbor for a while.

We learn that Hugh Smart, Millard Adams and Mont Truman have finished their job building poles and wood for W. D. Moulton. A number from here went to town hall Tuesday evening, Dec. 18, to the Ladies' Aid supper and sale and report a good time.

WEST LOVELL.

The community was saddened Tuesday, Dec. 18, when the telephone announced that George W. Andrews had passed to the Great Beyond.
Mr. Andrews was born in Freedom, N. H., and moved to West Lovell with his parents when a child. At the age of 17, he enlisted and served as drummer boy in the 12th Maine regiment of the Civil War conflict. After the war closed he went to Boston and was in the grocery business there until about twenty years ago when he retired from the work. He built a cottage at Pleasant Point on Lake Kezar, where he entertained his friends through the summer months.
At the death of his sister's husband, Nathaniel Fox, six years ago, he came to her place where he has since resided. His health began to fail about two years ago and while he has been able to be about the most of the time, was unable to do manual labor.
His disease, which developed into a tropical case, required more care than his sister could give him, as she was suffering from extreme cold, and a nurse was called to care for him. He was out to his meals Sunday and conversed with friends who called and while he was in bed, until Tuesday noon, from then he realized and talked until a few minutes before his death.
He was a member of many secret and social orders which included the Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Grand Army Post, Relief Corps, Rebekahs, Grange and Library Circle. He was a great reader and had expressed a wish that he might live to see a new Europe. In politics he was a republican.
The funeral was held at his late residence Friday afternoon, Rev. Fisher being the attending clergyman.
The bearers were Alexander Laroque, D. E. McAllister, M. A. LeBaron and Zachariah McAllister. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Caroline Fox, and several cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Lord were in Stow Sunday to see J. C. Howard, who lives alone. They found him in poor health.
Mr. and Mrs. Z. McAllister entertained their sons Ralph and wife, Byron and wife and Orman and Mrs. Caroline Fox and Madeline Wescott, on Sunday.

S. L. Plummer is cutting pine on his home place. Mr. Plummer has one of the best farms in this part of Oxford County.
E. N. Wentworth has sold his pine timber. Roscoe Thompson of Fryeburg is hauling it to Lake Kezar.
W. A. Merrill and S. R. Andrews are cutting pine on the Lydia lot, so called for P. E. Walker. This lot was cut over 20 years ago, stripped of all that was large enough for timber. Now you can cut one hundred and fifty thousand feet or more.
They are rehearsing a drama to be presented later for the benefit of the Red Cross.
The Red Cross box that the ladies packed at the library, Dec. 15, contained the following articles: four dozen surgical shirts, 63 pairs socks, 63 pairs wristlets, 19 sweaters, five helmets, three knitted bandages, seven ambulance pillows, four mufflers.
The following officers were elected at the last regular meeting of Delta Chapter, O. E. S.:

WEST PARIS

Wyman-Stetson
Freeman L. Wyman, our well known fruit man, who has his farm in Woodstock, the proprietor of Pleasant Valley Fruit Farm, has taken to himself a housekeeper and wife, Mrs. Mary Stetson. They went to Augusta Monday, Dec. 17, the home of Rev. and Mrs. D. A. Ball, who have recently moved there. Mrs. Stetson attended Mr. Ball's church while he was here, also both she and Mr. Wyman were associated with him in the Grange where Mr. Ball has been the chaplain for the past few years.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyman returned to Lewiston Monday evening and attended the State Grange, returning home Thursday afternoon. Announcement cards were sent to their numerous friends and well wishers.

The operetta Windmills of Holland, which was presented by the high school Friday night, was in every way a success. The principal soloists were those representing the cast as indicated in last week's items and they all did grandly. All were dressed in full Dutch costumes except the one American, called Bob Yankee. Miss Welch the assistant teacher, was piano accompanist and Miss Wall, principal, was the coach. Between the two scenes there was a piano duet by Edith Stevens and Marjorie McAllister and song by Earl Brown as specialties. The Grange Hall was full and they cleared about $33.00, which goes to help pay for the school Liberty Bond.

Christmas Exercises
The Christmas tree and exercises passed off pleasantly on Monday night at the Baptist church, which was full to the gallery and hall ways. The songs were principally those learned at school and the recitations by the smallest of the children except those representing the other nations. The three Sunday schools voted to give up their usual treat of candy and give that money to the starving Armenians. They all seemed to have just as much enjoyment with their school as they were given in their place a bag of popcorn each. Following is the Christmas program:

Singing, Joy to the World.....Congregation
Scripture and prayer.....Rev. L. W. Grady
Solo, O Little Town of Bethlehem. Alice Sanders
Recitations
Wendell Ring, Mary Mann, Dora Kimball
Song.....5th grade children
Exercise, Five Little Evergreens. Five little boys
Song.....Grammar grade children
Exercise, Christmas Proclamation
Three little girls
Morton Song.....Primary Children
Christmas in Sweden.....Olga McKee
Christmas in Holland.....Evelyn Small
Song, Martin Luther's Credo. Emma
Recitation and duet, Christmas in Armenia.
Lavinie Penhallow and Leona Marston
Exercise.....Four small girls
Part Song.....Grammar school children

Those representing the nations were dressed in full native costume. All the children did very nicely and were well applauded.

Various family Christmas trees and dinner parties were given in the homes and the little ones were made happy even if the older portion were in a way saddened by the world conflict and unrest.

Rev. D. A. Ball of Augusta preached in the Universalist church last Sunday. He was entertained with Mrs. P. E. Wheeler. Harry Swan is home over Christmas from Pittsburg, N. H., where he is working in the woods.

Grange Election
A good company met at the Grange Hall Saturday afternoon. After the business was over, there were reports given by the Master, A. R. Tuell, and Lecturer Mrs. Tjell and P. L. Wyman of the interesting and instructive things they saw and heard at the State Grange held in Lewiston that weekend. A solo, "The Heavenly Song" was given by Mrs. White and an original poem given by Iona Littlehale closed the program. Following is the poem entitled Meditation:

As I walk in the beautiful sunlight,
Alone in this wonderful world,
My mind wanders out to the trenches
Where liberty's banner is unfurled.
I think of the sons and the brothers
With hearts as pure as the snow,
God grant them the strength and the wisdom
That they may keep them so.

I think of the masses of the temple
Ever seeking their souls to destroy;
May the prayers of the mother or sweetheart
Guard the steps of her "Soldier Boy."
When this terrible warfare is over,
When right shall have triumphed at last,
When the anxious hours of waiting
Are counted as things of the past,
With lives as bright as the morning
And hearts that hide not the truth,
May our dear ones return to our friends
In the sweetness and purity of youth.

Miss Littlehale's brother Lorenzo is, they expect, on his way or already "Somewhere in France."

Clara Berry is home for Christmas vacation from her teaching in Morrill.
